Description:
Built by A-Square on a Remington P-14 action and chambered for the massive .577 Tyrannosaur. Matte blued barrel with brass beaded blade front sight, fixed white-line A-Square rear sight, and quick detach scope mounts. The rifle is marked "A-SQUARE/MADE IN U.S.A." and ".577 Tyrannosaur" on the barrel with the serial number on the right of the action and "HANNIBAL MODEL" on the left as well a Remington mark below the rear scope mount. The pistol grip stock is beautifully figured and features a 3/4 inch ventilated rubber recoil pad. Includes a sealed box of A-Square factory ammunition. The .577 Tyrannosaur is among the most powerful sporting cartridges ever developed, producing over 10,000 ft/lbs of muzzle energy, a truly staggering number, and can handle any game on the planet.

Rating Definition:
Excellent overall, retaining 97% plus original matte blue finish with some scratching on the barrel ahead of the stock, otherwise some minor handling evidence. Mechanically excellent.
