To Whom It May Concern:

Global Rescue has donated an individual 7 day medical and security short term membership to support Africahunting.com. This donation is valued at $225 and can be used as is or as a credit towards a more expensive membership. This membership must be redeemed within 60 days of the auction date. The contact email for this donation is memberservices@globalrescue.com and the contact phone number is (800) 381-9754. Please reference donation code: AH_SCI15.

Global Rescue provides worldwide advisory, field rescue and evacuation services in both medical and security emergencies. Global Rescue will conduct a field rescue from the point of illness or injury and evacuate members to their home hospital of choice. In addition, Global Rescue's team of paramedics and physicians, supported by Johns Hopkins Medical, provides 24hr advisory and assistance services wherever you are in the world.

Best Regards,

Kevin Helm

- This membership must be registered with Global Rescue within 60 days of the auction date
- The value may be used as credit for a more expensive membership, such as including security, extending the time period, adding family members or for an Extended Plan Membership
- This membership is not valid for polar travel
- You must be below 75 years old to use this membership. If you are between 75-85 you can apply the value towards an Extended Plan Membership, however coverage and approval is dependent on the completion and approval of an Extended Plan Application.
