CORRECTION: My local shop will NOT ship live ammunition. The 21 loaded rounds mentioned in "Extras" will be disassembled, powder dumped, primers fired, and shipped as components only (bullets and brass.) This mistake concerning shipping was due to a misunderstanding with the shop. I corrected the listing as quickly as possible and apologize sincerely for the mistake. I may ship the Extras personally, not sure yet.

Information above was added on 5/2/2024 8:07:51 AM

Purchased new by me in 2012, this discontinued rifle is chambered for the rare and classic British .404 Jeffery dangerous game cartridge.

Weighing 9.5 pounds and in almost factory new condition, it's been fired only 19 times. Bore is therefore in excellent condition.

The only minor blemishes I can find are located on the front sight ramp (where the shroud was removed) and approximately three micro "ding" areas on the wood surface that I can only find by searching in direct sunlight. Very tiny areas. Otherwise a small dark line in the wood exists close to the bolt shroud which I believe is a factory "fix" in order to use an absolutely gorgeous stock...or maybe the small line is a natural part of the grain, can't tell.

Overall, this is a magnificent rifle in close to mint condition. Please study the pictures, they tell the story.

Extras included (not sold separately) are:

--Three MTM boxes of fired, handloaded, and new unfired cases. All cases are Norma. Twenty cases are new unfired, nineteen are once fired, and twenty one are loaded. Boxes are numbered and include test load data, each round color-coded to the data with notes by experienced handloader.

--Four boxes (50ea) of currently unavailable (due to factory fire) premium Woodleigh bullets, all the same, plus one box of Hornady bullets. Missing are the 19 fired bullets and the 21 which are still present in the loaded rounds.

--Set of Redding dies used only to load the ammo in the MTM boxes

Buyer assumes full responsibility to inspect and decide proper use of the Extras above, including disassembly or disposal. Will be shipped separately to the same FFL address as the rifle. Make sure your FFL-holder approves before bidding. This is done to avoid unintentional conflicts with state or local laws. Both will be shipped by my local FFL-holder.

Current value of the Extras is estimated at $1,200 or greater. These alone total almost 20 pounds.

Rifle will be shipped in a hard case within a box and packaged carefully.

I will gladly answer questions or send extra photos. I am not an FFL-holder. I'm retired and intend to liquidate part of my small collection.

I will ship both heavy boxes, including insurance, for $100 shipping fee even if this is less than actual cost. Should be close to actual shipping cost. My FFL-holder will determine how to ship, etc. I can only estimate but will honor the $100 cost to buyer. I can't know what GunBroker may show, so by stating $100 we can agree with no surprise to buyer.

I do not offer returns or an inspection period due to the gun being described honestly and pictured in detail, the same way that I expect to be treated. Of course I'll stand responsible for any gross mistakes or misrepresentations. Payment must clear before shipping. Certified funds may ship sooner. Must collect sales tax per GunBroker.

She's a great rifle and a good investment.
