The Tikka T3X is a top-quality bolt-action rifle designed for reliable and accurate performance in a variety of shooting scenarios. The T3X is chambered in .308 Win with a 22.4" barrel, and features a 3-round capacity, and a grey laminated wood stock.

TIKKA T3X FEATURES

The Tikka T3x Laminated Stainless provides the adventurous hunter with weather resistance, stability and pinpoint accuracy. It withstands demanding weather conditions with a free-floating, cold hammer-forged, stainless steel barrel, as well as stainless steel receiver, bolt, and bolt handle. Tikka's T3x Laminated Stainless is designed to withstand demanding weather conditions with a sharp-looking gray hard-laminate stock for weather-resistance. The laminated wood cell structure does not expand during shifting weather conditions which minimizes the change in point of impact from where the rifle was zeroed. Weather can change in minutes, but the accuracy and performance of this rifle stands for years.

The Tikka T3X is constructed from high-quality materials, ensuring long-lasting durability and reliability in even the most demanding shooting environments. The rifle is also highly customizable, with a wide range of accessories available to suit the needs of any shooter. With its advanced features and high-quality construction, the Tikka T3X is a top-quality rifle that provides reliable and accurate performance in a durable and easy-to-use package.
