High quality and unique, but a bit boxy fitting

This jacket is beautifully made, and unique among waxed jackets. I love the stand up collar, wide front flap, overall length, and finish. As a jacket that was built for foul (bird) hunting, it's also very specifically purpose-built, which means there are features that the layperson would never use. My biggest complaint is that the jacket could be more fitted along the waist. Without a drawstri... Read more

The perfect jacket

I love this jacket. I can wear it both in the field and out on the town. It has a nice fit around my shoulders and is very flattering and I get a lot of compliments when I wear it

Just what I was looking for.

Exactly what I wanted- A qualitative upgrade from its English cousin.... Stylistically unique, fits well Medium Tall is a CLUTCH option(6'2", 185#), and built to wear. My first purchase from Beckbe, will not be the last.
