This auction is for a Browning X-Bolt Hell's Canyon Long Range McMillan chambered in 26 Nosler. This gun is in immaculate condition. I've had it for years and have less than 20 rounds through it. I sighted it in, and it's sat in my safe ever since. One of the flattest shooting guns on the market. Purchased to hunt out west, and that never materialized. So not really a gun I need where I live in Wisconsin.

The Leupold Scope and Rings are NOT included. Does include Leupold base (which came factory with gun). Also includes 94 Rounds of Ammo as follows:

- 40 Rds of 142 Gr Accubond Long Range Trophy Grade Ammunition- $263.90 Value
- 40 Rds of 140 Gr Ballistic Tip Hunting Ammunition- $129.90 Value
- 14 Rds of 140 Gr Custom Competition Match Grade Ammunition (No Box)- $79.77 Value

Also will include Custom Sling in matching camo pattern (A-TACS AU)- $40 Value

MSRP on gun was $2259.99.

Total value on items included is $2,773.56. However, you cannot find this gun anymore. It's been discontinued for several years, and Browning no longer makes guns chambered 26 Nosler. This was a tack driver when I shot it. Condition is immaculate, never been hunted with and has sat in a safe its whole life.

Shipping includes cost to ship gun AND ammo, but ammo will ship separately. Will ship to lower 48 (except California).

Any questions--Let me know.
