Zastava / Interarms Mark X Whitworth Express Rifle .458 Win Mag - Time Capsule / NOS

NO RESERVE - Offered for auction: Interarms Mark X Whitworth Express Rifle, chambered in .458 Winchester Magnum. Manufactured by Zavodi Crvena Zastava, this precision Mauser-style bolt-action rifle features a 24-inch barrel with a blued metal finish and is fed by an internal box magazine. Known for its reliability, this "Whitworth Express Rifle" was produced between 1974 and 1996.

The rifle is equipped with an English-style walnut Monte Carlo stock with a raised cheek piece, checkered pistol grip and forend, and an ebony tip. Additional details include a case-hardened grip cap, Whitworth recoil pad, front and rear sling swivels, a ramped front sight with a gold-beaded post and hood, and an express island rear sight with three leafs (one standing and two folding).

This rifle is in "time capsule" new-old-stock condition, remarkably still unopened in the original factory-taped protective bag. We have maintained the integrity of the bag for the photographs, leaving it sealed. The plastic bag shows a few small tears, and the manual exhibits light creasing from long-term storage. This rifle comes complete with its factory box and all original paperwork. The model is listed as VAR-83601.
